Dear Friends in Christ,

The chill in the air these days tells us of a seasonal change. As the roar of combine engines, tractor motors, augers, and elevators begin to fade, we give thanks for the bountiful harvest and anticipate the quiet of late fall and early winter.

The church in its prayer and liturgy accompanies us in this time. We are moving in the direction of Advent – a time for quiet reflection as we begin to prepare for the coming of Christ at Christmas and Christ coming at the end of time. Advent, then, is a time for us to deepen our sense of Christian hope – our trust in the future glory promised by Jesus to all who continue to follow Him.

So, it is good for us to ask ourselves: “Am I a person of hope?” “If someone comes to visit the parishes of our ACC, would that person experience us as communities and people of hope?” “What is the source of our hope?”

As pastor, to help all of us prepare for the upcoming season of Advent, I would like to invite all of you to a couple hour retreat being offered on Sunday, November 17th, from 1p.m. to 3 p.m. at the Holy Cross parish center in Onamia. I am naming the retreat: Preparing for Advent – A Season of Hope! I asked (and was pleased to hear) when Fr. Bob Rossi, OSC, indicated his willingness to lead this retreat which is intended to help prepare us for the Season of Advent. With the “busyness” of the coming Christmas Season, it is easy for us to lose sight of the important time of Advent – a time for quiet listening and a time to fill our hearts with a joy-filled hope! If we take to the time for Advent, we can be assured that the joy of Christmas will be all the greater and richer for us.

So, mark your calendars and please consider joining us for this special event: Preparing for Advent – A Season of Hope!

God's love and blessings,
Fr. Marv

The Liturgy of In Remembrance: The month of November is always set aside as a time of prayer for our loved ones who have gone before us. With this in mind, we wish to invite everyone to a special prayer service at 2:00 P.M. on Sunday, November 3rd at Holy Cross Church. This prayer service is called "In Remembrance" and it gives us a prayerful way to remember our loved ones. We will especially remember the members of Sacred Heart Parish, St. Rita Parish, St. Therese Parish, Holy Cross Parish and the Crosier Community who died during the past year. We will show our faith in the Resurrection by lighting a candle for each person that we pray for.
